‘Success and Confidence In Your Independent Practice’

“Our vision is for every Speech and Language Therapist to be excited about their work, realise their goals and be the best version of themselves”.

- Are you looking to break out on your own?
- Do you want to grow and expand your practice?
- Do you want to manage your work / life balance better?

We have the knowledge, tools and the strategies to help you run a successful practice that works for you.

This is a one day course, packed with information and ‘first hand’ experiences for you to benefit from.

The course is led by Julie Anstey and Helen Woodrow. Helen and Julie have over 50 years of expertise in working in independent practice, from setting out on their own, to running practices that employ teams of therapists, assistants and admin staff.

You will learn about:

- Processes involved in setting up your own practice.
- How to manage risk and practice safely.
- Writing a personal business plan.
- Dealing with money.
- Writing service contracts.
- Marketing your practice.
